St Anne's Mission...

“Provide quality support, care and housing services;
promote independence, opportunity and inclusion.”

St Anne's Mental Health Services Kirklees

Welcome to Birkdale Road

Birkdale Road is a welcoming home with a team of support workers. Staff support is provided 24 hours a day and the team have a range of skills and experience to help you achieve an independent life while sharing with other house mates.

Training of staff includes health and safety, first aid, adult protection, food hygiene, and most importantly NVQ level 3 in health and social care, mental health certificates and LDAF. The manager and deputy have the registered managers award.

We will support you to live your life the way you would like by promoting your independence in all areas of your life which are important to you. You will be fully consulted to produce a person centred plan of your life directed by you covering health, social, education, leisure cultural and religious needs.

We help to empower you to take control of your life and work together to ensure your home life is a happy, safe, environment which offers opportunities to be an individual and to achieve your wishes.
