About the Home

Burking Road is a 5 bedded property and a service for adults who have a learning disability.

The manager has achieved the Registered Managers qualification and is a qualified Health and Social Care Assessor. The deputy and all the support staff are qualified to NVQ Level 3 in Health and Social Care, with one staff member also achieving the assessor award.

Staff support clients with daily living tasks, social and leisure interests, maintenance of health and personal care as required.

All clients are consulted on their support needs and wishes via the person centred planning and review process. Clients are encouraged to make decisions in all aspects of their lives, including activities holidays, clothes, menu planning, decoration and choice of furniture within the home etc.

Clients also access day services of their choice within the local community, which include local authority provision and voluntary/charitable organisations. Staff also support clients to use community facilities such as shops, libraries, sport centres, pubs and clubs etc.

'Staff help me to choose holidays'

'All staff are kind. I like to chat with staff, and tale me to shows''
